
Subject: swithType "interlacedSwitch" in IL
Posted by Jörg von Lingen on Wed, 16 Jan 2019 11:21:06 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Dear all,

in the IL schema we have currently the possibility to mark a switch as type "interlacedSwitch" with relation to another switch because they both might have a dependency for interlocking operation. This particular type is currently not foreseen in IS at all. Do we need this type?

attached a photo of such interlaced switches ( https://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Datei:Plektita_trakforke_14.jp eg)

--

Regards,
Jörg von Lingen - Interlocking Coordinator

File Attachments

1) InterlacedSwitch.jpg, downloaded 394 times
